Little Big Farm Foods Opens A Factory Store! Innovators of Specialty Foods

Premium baking mix developer and manufacturer, Little Big Farm Foods of Portsmouth, NH has opened a factory store within its corporate headquarters at 199 Constitution Avenue.

Featuring the Little Big Farm Foods brand of premium quality, easy-to-make baking mixes, the store will be open Monday through Friday, 10 AM – 4 PM.

Store Manager, Lisa Psomas, announced the opening this week stating, "We are excited to offer our favorite, time-tested, family recipes, so delicious no one would ever guess they came from a box! We pride ourselves on making the highest quality mixes, free of artificial colors, flavors or preservatives."

According to Fern Bennett Phillips, CEO, "We are pleased to offer gluten-free and organic products, two trends that are here to stay, as well as innovative and legacy baking mixes. As we celebrate our 10th year of business, we are proud to have our facility be certified SQF Level 3 Edition 8.1, QAI Organic and NSF Gluten Free."

Established in 2010, Little Big Farm Foods develops and manufactures exceptional products of the highest quality. Through partnership with its customers, employees, vendors and the community, Little Big Farm Foods is committed to continuous improvement in all areas of these partnerships.

The 40-SKU line of Little Big Farm Foods mixes and the 6-SKU line of Homestead Baking Co. items can be found on Amazon, Facebook and Little Big Farm Foods website www.littlebigfarmfoods.com.
